Dear Sir,

I have the honour to request you to be pleased to permit me to print additional or Supplementary pages of 'Tai Nadu', Kannada Daily, edited by Mr. P.R. Ramaiah, B.Sc, whenever the need arises. At present the 'Tai Nadu' is not able to cope up with the work & hence they have sought my aid in the matter.

I trust you will be pleased to grant the permission without much ado, as preliminary enquiries have been conducted already in similar previous instances.

Another application of mine to print pages of 'Navajivana' Daily, must, have in your hands by this time.

Thanking you for expediting the matter

Yours faithfully,

With your leave, I once again desire to bring to your kind attention that I have made it abundently clear that pages of the newspaper printed in different presses shall bear the imprint of the presses separately, I fail to see why the Government should insist on our declaring ourselves as joint printers. The Government on the other hand, be perfectly justified in asking me to be responsible for matters printed in my press, which responsibility I have already undertaken to bear as printer.

Once again may I request you to reconsider your decision and allow me to print the papers on conditions previously mentioned by me.
